

OPINION

Bezos '86 silenced his opinion section. We're committed to protecting ours.

Head Opinion Editor Frances Brogan and Community Opinion Editor Jerry Zhu

“At the ‘Prince,’ we see publishing an ideologically heterogeneous range of important and interesting arguments, backed by credible evidence, as essential to the newspaper’s responsibility to our community.”

Frances Brogan and Jerry Zhu

“Bezos and his peers — such as Elon Musk and Mark Zuckerberg — comprise a new class of oligarchs. They demonstrate that political influence can be bought.”

“Their willingness to de-platform people who disagree with them and dismantle press freedoms indicates their prioritization of personal enrichment over democratic liberties.”

Frances Brogan and Jerry Zhu

“In this climate, financially independent student publications like the ‘Prince’ and our peers at Stanford, Harvard, Yale, and Penn, to name a few, are increasingly important.”

Frances Brogan and Jerry Zhu

“Bezos is restricting the ‘personal liberties’ he claims to care about.”

“But we’re dedicated to protecting your personal liberties — to write and read Opinion pieces from a plethora of perspectives, about a variety of topics.”

Caption: Head Opinion Editor Frances Brogan and Community Opinion Editor Jerry Zhu argue that Bezos is restricting the personal liberties he claims to care about. However, the Prince Opinion section is dedicated to protecting your personal liberties to write and read Opinion pieces from a plethora of perspectives, about a variety of topics.
